

TRUTH IN POLITICAL ADVERTISING

Join us to learn why Australia needs legislation to ensure truth in political advertising, and how that might be achieved.

Anne Maria Nicholson - moderator

Journalist, author, ABC Alumnus

Anne Maria is a prominent journalist, author and public speaker who has worked for a range of media organisations including 20 years as a news and current affairs journalist at the ABC.

Zali Steggall OAM - speaker

Independent Federal member for Warringah, Barrister, Olympic Skier

Zali has been the Independent Federal Member for Warringah since 2019. She has introduced three private members bills to counter misleading political advertising which seek to ensure honesty and accountability, without infringing on free speech.

Prof Ullrich Ecker - speaker

Cognitive Psychologist at University of Western Australia

Ullrich researches the impact of misinformation on memory and reasoning. He has provided expert advice to German & Australian Courts of Law, parliamentary committees in Singapore and Victoria, the European Commission, and the Australian Departments of Health and Home Affairs.

Prof Geoffrey Watson - speaker

Director at the Centre of Public Integrity, Adjunct Prof at Notre Dame

Geoffrey is a Senior Counsel specialising in anti-corruption, product liability, and professional negligence. He was the counsel assisting in public inquiries investigating corruption amongst New South Wales politicians and police misconduct.

Livestream via ZOOM
at 6pm AEDT Tuesday
15th October 2024

FREE - but registration is essential.

Registration available from the 20th September at

https://www.abcfriends.net.au/truth_webinar2024

or via this QR code

